

Working for Enjoin is extraordinary because you aren't just recognized as a number! You are part of an amazing team that always aims to enforce the Enjoin core values of innovation, empowerment, collaboration, respect, and community. I've been with the company for over a decade and can honestly say this has been the case from day one.

Andrea M., RHIT, CCS, CCS-P, CCDS,
Senior Clinical Coding Analyst

It's so gratifying to work with an incredibly talented group of people that give me daily opportunities to grow and enhance my clinical and coding skills. After nine years at this company, the fact that I still feel inspired, motivated, and excited as I did when I first started, makes Enjoin a truly special place. I've found my work "home" at Enjoin!

Bethany D., RHIT, CCS, CCDS,
Senior Clinical Coding Analyst

When you love what you do, it's a vocation and when you love the company that you work for, it's a gift. I enjoy the challenge, growth, and collaborative environment within our team at Enjoin.

Michele G., RHIT, CCS,
Senior Clinical Coding Analyst

I have worked as a Coder/Auditor for over 25 years, and I can truly say Enjoin has provided me with the best of everything including clinical knowledge, educational opportunities, personal and professional development, flexibility and respect as a valued member of an extraordinary team. With over a decade at Enjoin, I recognize their commitment to meeting and exceeding the expectations of both employees and clients.

Mary M., RHIT, CCS, CRC,
Clinical Coding Analyst

Enjoin is truly the best company that is committed to excellence in coding and clinical documentation. It has been a very rewarding experience in the 17 years working with the company and I continue to advance my knowledge and be challenged every day. Everyone has exceptional professionalism reflecting the values and integrity of Enjoin.
